FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center Welcomes New CEO/Administrator Joe Deveau

WALTHAM, MA – (March 27, 2017) Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, a non-profit provider of rehabilitative services, short-term and long-term care located in Waltham Massachusetts, recently announced that Joe Deveau of Lexington, has been named CEO/Administrator.

Mr. Deveau has over twenty-years of experience in the management of skilled nursing and rehabilitation care facilities.

He has also held several leadership and managerial positions in both the private and non-profit sectors, and served in the U.S. Naval Reserves. He earned a degree in Health Services Administration from the University of Massachusetts – Lowell, and is a Certified Nursing Home Administrator, a designation earned through the American College of Health Care Administration (ACHCA), a Washington DC-based professional association that provides educational programming, professional certification, and career development opportunities for its members.

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care. People of all faiths and denominations are welcomed at the recently-updated facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
