Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center Welcomes New Director of Human Resources

WALTHAM, MA – (June 9, 2017) Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, a non-profit provider of rehabilitative services, short-term and long-term care located in Waltham Massachusetts, recently announced that Marcella Westfall has joined the organization as Director of Human Resources.

Primarily responsible for implementing strategies that will enable Maristhill to recruit, train, and retain a high performing and motivated workforce, Ms. Westfall is an accomplished HR professional with over 17 years of experience in public and private sectors. She began her professional career in the United States Army as an active duty Military Personnel Manager, overseeing HR personnel operations for over 9,000 soldiers stateside and overseas. She also served as an HR Generalist for the Department of Veteran Affairs, University of Miami Hospital and with the City of Miami, and as the HR Administrator for Serco, Inc. Marcella holds a Bachelor's degree in Human Resources from Florida A&M University, and a Master's in Human Resource Management from Devry University/Keller Graduate School of Management.

"We are most pleased to welcome Marcella to the team," said Joe Deveau, Maristhill CEO & Administrator. "Her knowledge, extensive experience, and strong communication skills will be extremely beneficial in supporting our long-term staffing and career development goals."

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care. People of all faiths and denominations are welcomed at the recently-updated facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
