FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center Names Talia Piver, LCSW, Director of Social Services

WALTHAM, MA – (May 23, 2017) Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, a non-profit provider of rehabilitative services, short-term and long-term care located in Waltham Massachusetts, recently announced that Talia Piver, LCSW of Needham, MA, has been appointed Director of Social Services.

Ms. Piver has several years of experience in the skilled nursing and rehabilitation care field, including prior social services work at Maristhill. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology and a Master of Social Work degree from Wheelock College in Boston, and also holds a Certificate in Medical Social Work. Her new responsibilities will include performing assessments for residents and short-term care patients, and conducting progress updates and care plan meetings with resident and patient families.

“We are most pleased to congratulate Talia on her promotion,” said Joe Deveau, Maristhill CEO & Administrator. “Her exceptional qualifications, attention to detail, and positive attitude will continue to be great assets in supporting the needs of our residents and patients.”

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care. People of all faiths and denominations are welcomed at the recently-updated facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
