Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center Welcomes Director of Human Resources

WALTHAM, MA – (March 19, 2018) Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, a non-profit provider of rehabilitative services, short-term and long-term care located in Waltham Massachusetts, recently announced that Lori Savlon has been appointed Director of Human Resources.

Primarily responsible for implementing strategies that will enable Maristhill to recruit, train, and retain a high performing and motivated workforce, Ms. Savlon is an accomplished HR professional with over 20 years of progressive human resource management experience. She has held several positions within healthcare human resource environments, including Personnel Coordinator and HR Manager, and holds a bachelor's degree in Human Services from Fitchburg State College.

“Lori is a true professional and we are most pleased that she’ll be leading our Human Resources team,” said Joe Deveau, Maristhill CEO & Administrator. “Her extensive experience, knowledge, and strong communication skills will be extremely beneficial in supporting our long-term staffing and career development goals.”

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care. People of all faiths and denominations are welcomed at the recently-updated facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a values-based, Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
